

Intellectual Property

Lyons Law Group stands at the forefront of Intellectual Property Law in Florida, blending deep legal knowledge with hands-on experience to protect the innovations and brands that drive your business forward.

Our dedicated IP team has cultivated a reputation for excellence, advising clients across the Sunshine State on patents, trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets. We stay laser-focused on Florida's unique legal landscape—its state statutes, local court procedures, and the intersection with federal IP regulations—so you can pursue your creative and technological goals with total confidence.

At Lyons Litigation, we offer a full spectrum of IP services tailored to Florida businesses. Our attorneys guide you through the patent-filing maze at the USPTO, execute comprehensive trademark searches and registrations with the Florida Division of Corporations, and manage copyright deposits with the U.S. Copyright Office. We draft robust nondisclosure agreements and licensing contracts, conduct due diligence on IP acquisitions, and assemble strategic portfolios that maximize your asset value.

Contact us today to discuss your potential needs in dealing with Florida's Intellectual Property laws.